MRS. BADEN DEAD; FRIEND OF LINCOLN

Mrs. Frances Henshaw Baden, widow of Thomas Edwin Baden, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, William M. Netherland, 1332 Riggs place northwest. Mrs. Baden, who had been in declining health for some time, was seventy-six years old. Heart failure was the immediate cause of her death. The funeral will take place to-morrow. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Baden, who was the half-sister of Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth, the Georgetown novelist, was well known in literary circles here in her younger days. She was the author of several works of fiction that commanded quite a vogue at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. Baden came to Washington soon after their marriage. They were on intimate terms with President Lincoln and family during the Lincoln administration.

She is survived by three married daughters, Mrs. A. Maurice Low, now in Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Guy Carlton, of Asheville, N. C., and Mrs. Marvin A. Custe, of this city.
